

Imagine your whole class in PARIS!

WIN A TRIP TO PARIS ON EUROSTAR FOR THE WHOLE CLASS!

Your school is one of only 20 that has been specially selected because it is close to the St. Pancras Eurostar terminal. This competition is being organised to make pupils aware of how close they are to France.

Renowned children's author Michael Morpurgo came up with the idea for the competition and is delighted to be associated with this prize.

The prize for the winning class will be: a day trip to Paris on Eurostar, travel in Paris, refreshments and entry to the Eiffel Tower that runs through a tunnel that is more than 30 miles long and runs from England under the sea. It is the longest undersea tunnel on earth and is one of the seven wonders of the modern world. We are inviting you to imagine going through this long tunnel on the train and coming up into another land.

There is a train

Write a story about happens.

All words and pictures must be inside the circle on the paper supplied – just remember to have fun and let your imagination run wild!

You don't have to draw pictures if you don't want to.

Deadline: Please return all entries by 30th March 2012 to FBC, 10-11 Dacre Street, London SW1H 0DJ

Length: 30 x A3 sheets are enclosed on which each child is invited to write their entry inside the circle. There is no minimum/maximum number of words. The only other rules are to be imaginative and to have fun!

Full details and terms and conditions are included in this pack and also available on www.francobritishcouncil.org.uk